FOUR JURIES TRY IT

The Suit to Recover Damages For Wharfage Still Unsettled.

CASE WILL LAST ALL THE WEEK

The Death of Rev. Dr. George C. Vandervelde—Two Powerful New Locomotives for the N. & W.—They Did Good Work—Jones Goes Free—Lits the Notes of Interest.

Suffolk, Va., March 17.—(Special).—After using four juries to decide a difference of opinion between neighbors, it is to be hoped some conclusion will be reached before the present trial is over. It is the case to decide whether a small wharf at East belongs to the plaintiff, W. G. Saunders, or whether the public has a right to use it free of cost. The suit came on at 10 o'clock this morning when Saunders wanted County Treasurer S. T. Ellis to pay for using the wharf. The first jury which heard the evidence could not agree.

Nansemond County Court launched into the case again today. There was a new legal talent in the case this time. Attorney J. T. McHenry, who has been associated with him Judge D. Tucker Brooke, of Norfolk; Judge R. H. Hawley, of Suffolk, and Colonel K. H. Griffin, of Portsmouth, represent the plaintiff.

The preliminary work resulted in the following jurors being sworn: S. C. Bartlett, W. R. Frazer, C. D. Harrell, Elkanah Harrell, W. E. Lawrence, John H. Peel, John F. Rawles, A. J. Peel, Rees Williamson, W. D. Holland, Robert R. Allen, Frank Hurff.

The witnesses out on were Beverly P. Baker, county surveyor; Tazewell J. Saunders, John P. Coaling, W. H. Luke, C. R. Jackson, E. C. Ramsey. They were for the plaintiff. There are 27 witnesses for Saunders and 18 for Ellis. The case will last all this week. It has never been tried in less than three days.

Eloquent Preacher Gone.
One of the best loved preachers Suffolk has known lies dead in Richmond. The Rev. Dr. George C. Vandervelde breathed his last about 6:15 o'clock this evening, after being unconscious more than a day. The end was peaceful. Dr. Vandervelde had been suffering for two or three weeks.

The deceased leaves seven children—Mrs. Lee Britt, of Suffolk; Dr. George Vandervelde, of Hampton; Mr. Granberry Vandervelde, of Richmond; Attorney S. D. Vandervelde, and Misses Mary, Kate and Grace Vandervelde, of Richmond.

Dr. Vandervelde was for four years pastor of the Main Street M. E. church, in Suffolk, and ceased to be pastoral when the time came to reach 71. He was 77 years old.

MIGHTY STEAM HORSES.

The two largest locomotive engines which ever passed through Suffolk will pass the Norfolk and Western tracks for the first time tomorrow morning. They are just from the factory. This pair of mighty steam horses will arrive here over the Southern railway tracks, and be transhipped to the Norfolk and Western in East Suffolk. They came south via the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk. From Suffolk the engines will be taken directly to Norfolk, Va. The big "coal jacks" which haul miles of coal through Suffolk every day are workhorses compared with these new locomotives. They weigh 16 tons each and are 50 per cent. more powerful than the largest now in use on that road. There are four new engines of the same size to follow shortly.

THEY DID GOOD WORK.
After nearly three weeks' duration the East Suffolk-Medford rivalry is a thing of history. It closed last night. Five more members were admitted to membership, making a net gain of thirty, with more to join Sunday. There were more than fifty processions, besides many reclamations of backsliders. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Kauter, has labored assiduously and with much zeal and success. It was the best meeting in the church's history.

JONES GOES FREE.
Because Jesse Francis declined to prosecute Walker Jones, who was alleged to have shot at him three times in the county road, Jones got free. The case was compromised in some way between the combatants, and the Commonwealth gets no revenge.

Justices R. H. Baker and F. W. Rawles presided jointly at Nurneyville, where preliminary hearings, which terminated in a finality, was conducted. Attorney J. U. Burgess, of Suffolk, appeared for Jones. The warrant charging a felony, was not sustained by the court's opinion and other warrants failed equally in conviction. The defendant acknowledged the shooting, but says he merely fired in the air. Lena Harnett, about whom the friend of Jones did not come to court, if it is not hard to have a risk, like the above, there may be others.

LETTER NOTES.
A burnt lot in Cedar Hill cemetery was today conveyed by deed to J. E. Lawler for $10.

Mr. W. P. Coaling, of Danville, Va., was in Suffolk today.

Woodward & Elam, agents for the Travelers' Accident Insurance company, yesterday paid Frank D. Carr, of the county, $55.71, as a compensation for injuries resulting from a fall off a step ladder.

Mrs. W. O. Noyes is in Washington, D. C., visiting friends.

Mrs. W. J. Kille left this week for a long visit to Baltimore.

Mrs. W. C. Harrell, of Suffolk, will spend tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Harrell, of Suffolk.

Mr. Wm. W. Rountree, of Richmond, Va., was in Suffolk today.

Miss Beale Crupper, of Suffolk, has closed her school in North Carolina and returned home.

Miss Julia Phillips will leave tomorrow morning for Port Norfolk to visit Mrs. Steele. She will assist in a preparation for a church dedication.

Mr. C. A. Sheep returned today from a lengthy stay at his old home in Pennsylvania.

The Actina.
The Actina, the largest fire insurance company in America, has entered Suffolk for business and placed its agency with us.

In two fires, Chicago, 1871, and Boston, 1872, this company paid out more than five million dollars, and never stopped writing business for a day. The company now has more than eight million dollars surplus to policy holders, and we take great pleasure in offering all its advantages to our patrons. With our present facilities we are able to place any line, no matter how large, and solicit fire insurance of all kinds.

POLICE STOPPED THE FIGHT.

Jack Everhardt Pounds Kid McGlynn all Over the Ring.

Chicago, Ill., March 17.—Jack Everhardt, of New Orleans, and Kid McGlynn, of Philadelphia, met here to night in the 10th round. Everhardt, a big, powerful fighter, landed a right swing on McGlynn's face, and McGlynn, who was strong at the time, caught Everhardt a head right on the face as the round ended.

In the second and third rounds McGlynn had all the best of it. McGlynn, who, it is said, had not trained a day, showed great courage and skill and sent Everhardt's head back three times with right counters. McGlynn was bleeding from the right eye as the close of the third.

McGlynn was sent down with a stiff right in the jaw in the first half of the fourth, and then Everhardt put it all over him, McGlynn being groggy at the close.

McGlynn never had a chance after the opening of the fifth and Everhardt battered him all over the ring. The police stopped the fight after two minutes, McGlynn being hardly able to keep his feet.

DECLARED A DRAW.
The Twenty-Round Go Between Kid Lavigne and Jack Daly Was Fast and Furious.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 17.—The twenty round go between Kid Lavigne and Jack Daly for the light weight championship of the world at the Central Armory to-night resulted in a draw. The fighting was fast and furious from the start, but the contestants were so evenly matched that neither could gain an advantage over the other to get a decision in his favor.

The amount in which the fight occurred, was crowded to the limit, and the preliminary contest began. The fight could not be held after 7 o'clock, although offers of $15 and $20 for seats were freely made. The spectators included sporting men from Philadelphia, Buffalo and other cities, and none of them were disappointed by the exhibition. "Kid" McGlynn was the referee and his decisions gave excellent satisfaction, notwithstanding the fact that the persons of Lavigne tried to influence the contest in his favor.

EXCITING GAME OF GOLF.
Herbert C. Leeds Wins the Southern Cross Championship.

Albany, N. C., March 17.—The Southern Cross Championship was won today by Herbert C. Leeds, the founder of the Palmeter Golf Club, and for two years the holder of that trophy from Foxhall Keen, by a score of five and four to play. The weather was all that could be desired for good golf, and large galleries were in attendance, both in the forenoon and afternoon. The features of the game were the phenomenal drives of Leeds and the approach shots of Keen. On several occasions Leeds drove from teeing ground to green, and his opponent made some of the most remarkable and prettiest iron shots played on the club grounds this season. The contest was between Leeds and Gray, the former winning seven up and six to play.

PROCTOR TALKS OF CUBA

ter, nor the Pass of the Maine, if our worst fears should prove true, terrible as are both of these incidents, but the spectacle of a million dead and half people, the entire native population of Cuba, struggling for freedom and deliverance from the worst misgovernment of which I ever had knowledge. The fear that if free the people of Cuba would be revolutionary, is not so well founded as has been supposed, and the conditions for good self government are far more favorable.

"But it is not my purpose at this time, nor do I consider it my province to suggest any plan. I merely speak of the symptoms as I saw them, but do not undertake to prescribe such remedial steps as may be required and may safely be left to an American President and the American people."

At the conclusion of Mr. Proctor's statement Mr. Medley (Florida) delivered an extended speech in opposition to the national quarantine bill. He held strongly that the national government ought not to trench upon the limits of the constitution by invading the rights of the States to establish their own quarantine regulations. He advocated strengthening the national maritime quarantine.

Mr. Bacon (Georgia) maintained that the matter of quarantine was not a sectional question, all parts of the United States being liable to epidemics. "I favor," said he, "all the aid the Government can give in the prevention of epidemics and the stamping out of disease, but I do not favor a regulation which will deny to a State or community the right to protect itself by quarantine regulations."

Precious to this Mr. Butler (North Carolina) made a few remarks denouncing the T. R. bankruptcy measure.

At 4:50 p. m., on motion of Mr. Frye (Maine) the Senate went into executive session, and at 5 o'clock p. m. adjourned until Monday.

IN THE HOUSE.

The Whole Session Devoted to the Postoffice Appropriation Bill.

Washington, D. C., March 17.—No political question was discussed in the House today. The whole session was devoted strictly to the postoffice appropriation bill, which was taken up 6 o'clock amendment under the five minute rule. The questions which consumed the major portion of the time related to the allowance for clerk hire at postoffices and to rural free delivery. The House increased the allowance for rural free delivery from $150,000 to $300,000 and defeated the proposition for increased clerk hire. The amendment to increase the appropriation for rural free delivery was offered by Mr. Stokes (Democrat, South Carolina). The House, at 5:30 p. m., adjourned.

DEATH OF C. K. BRUCE.

Was Register of the Treasury and a Native of Virginia.

Washington, March 17.—Hon. Charles K. Bruce, Register of the Treasury, died this morning at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Bruce's death had been expected for several days. He suffered from a complication of stomach troubles, which at first appeared not serious, but last week he lost strength and toward the close of the week it became apparent that his vitality was ebbing rapidly.

Mr. Bruce's only child, a son, Roscoe C. Bruce, 18 years old, arrived here yesterday from Exeter, N. H., where he is taking a preparatory course for Harvard. The funeral will take place on Monday, the services being held at Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church, deceased.

Charles K. Bruce was born in Prince Edward county, Va., March 1, 1881, and was 57 years old. He was of an American descent, was born a slave, and received his education from the University of Virginia.

He taught school for a time in Hamlet, Mo., and later became a student at Oxford. In 1889 he became a planter in Mississippi and was appointed a member of the Mississippi Live Board. He was elected sheriff of that county, and subsequently Superintendent of Education. In 1875 he was elected United States Senator as a Republican and served until March 3, 1881. He was a member of every Republican National Convention held since 1868.

In 1881 he was appointed by President Garfield Register of the Treasury and later was appointed Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia. About 6 months ago he was again appointed Register of the Treasury by President McKinley. Next after Fred Douglass, Mr. Bruce had been regarded as perhaps the most conspicuous man of his race.

WILL NOT PAY INDEMNITY.
Spanish Officers Say Explosion of the Maine Was Due to Internal Causes.

Madrid, March 17.—The following semi-official note was issued here today: "The report of the Spanish commission on the Maine is not yet known; but the statement of several technical officers, who have made a close examination of the scene of the disaster, show it was indisputably due to an internal accident. American assertions to the contrary are therefore, deplored in official quarters as tend to mislead public opinion and render the situation still more difficult from the standpoint of maintaining friendly relations between the two countries. It may be regarded as certain that should the American technical commission present a report declaring the disaster to be due to an external explosion, the public here will refuse to accept such a finding and any demand for an indemnity based thereon will be indignantly repelled by Spain."

Elbow-grease
A little soap used to be the thing to clean house with. Now-a-days it's Pearlina. Pearlina is easier and quicker and better than elbow-grease.

One reason why millions of women prefer Pearlina, rather than anything else, in cleaning house, is that it saves the paint and woodwork. But the principal reason, of course, is that it saves so much work.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "This is as good as" or "the same as Pearlina." IT'S FALSE!—Pearlina is never peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

Beware

HAMPTON ROADS FLEET

sation that the court will probably return to Havana before reaching its conclusions.

Boston, Mass., March 17.—A special to the Globe from Key West by A. Maurice Low, says:

"It is learned to-night that a special report of the work of the court of inquiry has been sent to Washington.

"This is not the report and the findings of the court, which have not yet been agreed upon, but is in the nature of communication for the use of the President, which he may or may not make public as he sees fit.

"No way event it will prepare the President for what the board will report and enable him to take measures accordingly, as the court will find that the Maine was blown up from the outside.

"The full report, it is said to-night, will not be formulated and in the hands of the Secretary of the Navy for some days yet."

A LETTER FROM WEYLER.

Correspondent Laine Produces Damaging Document Against the Butcher.

New York, March 17, 1898.

The New York Journal this afternoon prints a statement written by Honore F. Laine, the newspaper correspondent recently arrested and searched by Spanish officials in Cabañas prison, Havana, and later expelled from the island. This is the opening of Laine's statement:

"On January 24th, at 10 o'clock at night I met in the cafe legislerra, the headquarters of the reporters in Havana, Francisco Diaz, a reporter of the radical Spanish paper La Union Constitucional, with whom I frequently exchanged news.

"On asking him if he had anything to give me, he took from his pocket a letter and handed it to me, saying: 'Weyler wrote this letter to Santos Guzman, who sent it to Nové (the editor of La Union Constitucional) for him to read and write an article on the acceptance by Weyler of the candidacy of Deputy to the Cortes for Havana. I took this copy, which you can keep.'"

The following is the alleged letter referred to above:

"His Excellency, Don Francisco de Los Santos Guzman, Havana:

"My Distinguished Personal and Political Friend—Since the latest events I have changed my views about the attitude which our political party in Cuba ought to assume.

"If I have thought before that it was more dignified for us to abstain from the electoral contest, I believe now that it is a patriotic duty for us to go to the polls. Our success cannot be doubted; neither can our victory of voters, nor that with a program of defense of the national honor we will have side by side with us all those lukewarm politicians who, though Spaniards by heart, are deceived by the inside combinations of Meret and Sagasta, and take as scientific solutions of our colonial problems who are really dishonorable humiliations of our country before the United States.

"Write on your flag—the flag of Spain—defense of national honor and I offer you my name as your candidate."

"After having commanded during two years two hundred thousand Spanish heroes in Cuba, the title I shall be more proud of is that of Deputy from Havana at the Cortes of Spain."

"By the way, I have read these days that the Americans are pondering about sending one of their warships to that city. During my command in Cuba they did not even dare to dream about it. They knew the terrible punishment it would entail them.

"I left Havana harbor well prepared for such an emergency. I rapidly finished the work that Martinez Campos carelessly abandoned.

"If the insult is made I hope that there will be a Spanish hand to punish it as terribly as it deserves.

"Romero is in better health than his friends could have expected, and notwithstanding how morally sick I feel breathing this humiliating atmosphere, is well; also your affectionate friend and servant,

"VALERIANO WEYLER."

Madrid, January 8, 1898.

Laine says that he read the letter and phoned it to him. When the letter arrived he called at the office of the Union Constitucional to see Diaz, in an effort to secure the original of the letter. Some days after the Maine explosion Laine met Diaz, who asked him if he remembered the letter and what its contents were about an American warship. The American correspondent replied that he did and that he believed some one had followed Weyler's advice. Laine says that he has since found out that Diaz informed the Chief of Police that he (Laine) had a copy of a letter written by Weyler which might bring trouble to the Spanish Government, especially as he was an American newspaper correspondent who was associating with Captain Sagasta. Hence his arrest on March 4th.

Continuing his narrative Laine says: "I had noticed for several nights mysterious work which was being done in the fortress. On inquiring from a soldier whom I knew what it was he informed me that they were carrying from the magazine of the fortress large quantities of dynamite, which were being laid in the harbor.

"My investigation during my period of imprisonment were covered as far as a political prisoner could do in a Spanish fortress, but it was sufficient for me to ascertain with certainty that the quantity of dynamite placed in the harbor in different places was three tons and that the wires of the mines were connected with the Cabañas Fortress and the Capitanía de Puerto, or marine headquarters."
